

Randle Chowning Band, Stolen Away

(GUITAR SOLO INTRO)

here she comes, never mind thinking 'bout what she done just remind yourself you get yer blues on the run look out boy, I think she's got her eyes on you and if she gets ya, I'll have to say "don't let your heart, your heart, your heart get stolen away"

la la la la la, la la la la stolen away

I bought my old lay a brand new gown I said to myself, better take my lady to town and show her around we went to a bar an' we got high they played the Tennessee Waltz 'til the bar ran dry woke up this mornin' (woke up) throbbin' in my head tossin' an' a'turnin in an empty bed my love was stolen away

la la la la la, la la la la stolen away

she broke my heart

right down the middle boy

(GUITAR SOLO)
