Ray Foxx, Boom Boom (Heartbeat) feat. Rachel K

Another night, another day
I'm moving, loving every beat that's played
Suddenly I'm out of place
Distracted by an unfamiliar face

You say come on over, let me take control
Of you and all of what we do
Confused I think every word you say
Confused you got it right inside my head

I've been poisoned by your eyes tonight
My pulse on overload, I've gone all shy
I can't speak or think, I want you as mine
You made my heart beat in and out of time

Boom boom boom boom /8x]

Surrounding your hands on my face
I like your subtle touch and your slow pace
Sounds of you with sounds of me
This perfect us is happening naturally

You say let me hold you, let me take control
Of you and all of what we do
I can feel your energy inside of me
Electricity explodes from our bodies

I've been poisoned by your eyes tonight
My pulse on overload, I've gone all shy
I can't speak or think, I want you as mine
You made my heart beat in and out of time

Boom boom boom boom /8x

I've been poisoned by your eyes tonight
My pulse on overload, I've gone all shy
I can't speak or think, I want you as mine
You made my heart beat in and out of time

You made my heart beat in and out of time
You made my heart beat in and out of time
I've been poisoned by your eyes tonight
My pulse on overload, I've gone all shy
I can't speak or think, I want you as mine
You made my heart beat in and out of time

Boom boom boom boom /8x

You made my heart beat /3x
You made my heart beat in and out of time
Boom boom boom boom
