

Ray Kelly, Hallelujah

We're joined together here today
To help two people on their way
As Leah and Chris start their life together
And now we've reached their special day,
We've come to help them celebrate
And show them how much we all love them too, yeah.

Hallelujah Hallelujah Hallelujah Hallelujah

As Leah is walking up the isle,
And Chris looks up and gives a smile
The love that flows between them fills the church, yeah.
With Leah's friends and family on her side
She really is the blushing bride
With love and pride they lead the Hallelujah

Hallelujah Hallelujah Hallelujah Hallelujah

With the priest and the family who lead the prayers
We say our lines and they say theirs
I guide them through the ceremony, too yeah
And in this house of God above
They joined their hands to show their love
And say those most important words, "I DO", yeah.

Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah.
