Razorlight, Can't Stop This Feeling I've Got

I can't stop this feeling I've got,
I know who I am and I know what im not,
I know where ive been and I know what Ive lost
But I cant stop this feeling ive got
Wasnt looking ahead and I heard
Didnt I see, didnt I learn
And I dont know what you mean to me
But im starting to think its just a mystery

I can't stop this feeling I've got,
I know who I am and I know what im not
I know where ive been and I know what ive lost
But I cant stop this feeling ive got
Wasnt looking ahead and I heard
Didnt I see, didnt I learn

I may be right you may disagree But im starting to think its just a mystery Whatever it is its just a mystery

Ah you dont really look so easy You spend a lifetime looking for someone And then they come and youre just so uneasy You get the feeling that if I dont come Then theres one more story be on your way

And I can't stop this feeling I've got, I know who I am and I know what im not I know where ive been and I know what ive lost But I cant stop this feeling ive got

The sky may fall, the sea may split You may say that isnt it I may be right you may disagree Same old story same old me And I dont know what you mean to me But im starting to think its just a mystery Ive got to admit its just a mystery
