

Reality Check, Know You Better

simply understanding
you see me when no
one's around
frustration shows my patience it seems I'll never get
this right
to get to know you better to love you more than myself to give you everything
all of me, all of me
I am human I borrow this excuse for my pride
inconsistent independent it seems I'll never make
waiting for a sign to fall into my lap from the sky pockets full of time
it seems I've waited
here forever
