

Reality Check, Losing Myself

today I want to get away I want to go some place where I can pray and go where the trees are tall
where the water rushes to
the falls fly I want to fly away
to a place where they can't find me
I want to see the stars that shine and I'll land on mars and run
I want to run all day
far away
where I can face the sun I want to catch the rays fade away to a brighter place take me away where I can feel you move me
to lose myself in you I'll do what I have to do
today I want to get away
where the skies are clear most every day
I'll go where the river runs washes away my field of pain fly I want to fly up high let my spirit soar I'll kiss the sky
I want to go to the place where I
find you
run I want to run
all day
to a place where
I can face
the sun
I want to catch the rays
fade away to a
brighter day
take me away
where I can feel you move me
I'm following clse behind
I want to walk in your light
