

Reality Check, Time Is Fading

take time what's on your mind everybody's standing on another side
it's a chance for personal gain if you're gonna play on someone else's shame take time share another life perfect to the end and taking on our strife
take the time to clear up your mind
put away yourself and open up your eyes
this time I started waiting for myself to fade
walking in to complications and I rearrange
do I fear my feelings
am I numb to pain
are my senses washing me sane will it ever go away hey, hey, hey time is fading so come on it's about time
love is so blind
you're walking
on the line
set your mind on ease take a
turn for me
please
would you please
if you sit back look at your life look at yourself and set back your pride
take the time for what's on your mind
put away yourself and open up your life
hey, hey, hey time
is fading
coming to my senses
hey, hey, hey time
is fading
my life is changing
