

Reba McEntire, Break Each Others Hearts Again

Do you still drank whiskey

Can I buy you around

If nobody's sittin' here

Do you mind if I sit down

I was nervous when I saw you

I almost walked away

And now I can't believe

What I'm about to say

(Chorus)

These arms wanna hold you

These lips wanna kiss you

These eyes are glad to see you

Baby I miss you

Let's drive each other crazy

Like we did back then

Why don't we get together

And break each other's hearts again

Maybe I've had one too many

I don't wanna say too much

We both know the reasons

Why we didn't keep in touch

We know good for each other

Still its hard to let it go

I'm trying to be strong

But babe you gotta know

(Chorus)

And loving you should be the last thing on my mind

It feel so good to let you hurt me one more time

(Chorus)
