

Recover, Don't Ask Don't Tell

dont you get enough of me?
are you paranoid? are you scared of disease?
do you need something stronger?
do you want someone not so dumb?
i love you when youre not mine its hard to be honest these days when life becomes routine, ill find a new way
i wont ask if you dont tell (even if the truth)
i wont ask if you dont tell (even if, even if)
let go, let go (youll feel better)
let go, let go (youll feel stronger)
i dont have to twist your arm your eyes tell me whats happend since ive been gone you dont need to say anything i wish could be innocent
you hold my breaking heart its hard to stick around these days when life becomes routine
i wont ask if you dont tell (even if the truth)
i wont ask if you dont tell (even if, even if)
let go, let go (youll feel better)
let go, let go (youll feel stronger)
i dont want to know
come close, come close
i wont ask if you dont tell (even if the truth)
i wont ask if you dont tell (even if, even if)
let go, let go (youll feel better)
let go, let go (youll feel stronger)
i wont ask
let go, let go
let go, let go
