

Red Bridge, Hopeless Feeling

Some day Ill find that we have never been apart
What weve passed, what weve felt, what happened to my heart
Shadows of my memories make me blind to everything
I cant get rid of it and I cant leave it behind when I close my eyes I can see the birds eye view little lake our home and every noticeable word
Every single fall Im just curious and I really want to know What do you feel bout my Love this is feeling that world really Want cause its keeping hearts together and I Know that for me this is nothing but the Word,
I dont wanna fall in love
