

Red Hot Chili Peppers, La La La La La La La La

I wanna spend my life with you
Mess around with things to do
We could start a family feud
Laugh so hard they'll think we're rude

I'll fuck up and get so mad
Act just like my broken dad
Chris Columbus solitaire
Whistle when you want me there

Give me your honey
I won't spend it in one place
Bended knee to get a taste

I wanna spin my wheels with you
Win and lose some deals with you
Tell me how it feels for you
To order happy meals for two

And when it all seems out of reach
We'll clean up plastic off the beach
Your figure is a perfect speech
You'll be Chong and I'll be Cheech

Give me your honey
I won't spend it in one place
Bended knee to get a taste

La la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la
La la la la la
Pull back the curtain
La la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la
La la la la la
You are that person

Indonesia that's my groove
It doesn't matter where we move
I lost you at the Vegas Louvre
But we don't need no rings to prove Crippled by some looping fears
The ripples of a lost career
Phone call from a financier
And no one lives like Norman Lear

Give me your honey
I won't spend it in one place
Bended knee to get a taste

La la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la
La la la la la
Pull back the curtain
La la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la
La la la la la
You are that person

I wanna spend my life with you

Stare at space before it's through Every day's the same but new
Even when it's old that's cool
