

Red Velvet, Queendom

Hey here we go again
Under the dazzling sunlight
You smile brightly like a child

Oh hey in the same dream
It kept calling us
Wonderland beyond distant memories

We are Queens in the red castle
Don;t need crown
We are born to dazzle
Paradigm that we're been building together
Stereotype that's clearly different

The more you look
The brughter the pose
Problems?
You to the sky
Throw it!

We are makin' the rules

Coz we are Queens and Kings
Put your hands your higher
The more it gathers
The more beautiful it gets

Shining bling bling
Even if it rains
Strong and beautiful
Rainbow cmpleted in all different colors
