

Redwood (Switzerland), The Darkest Star

Take my hand, I'll guide you to the darkest star
One step after the next step
Please don't cry, I'll be there for the hardest part
Fold your fingers into mine

I know that I'll know when we go
And I'll go as far as I go
I'll be holding on for you
And I'll take you wherever I go

Wherever I go

If you stumble, I'll be there to break your fall
If you get lost, I'll guide you to the darkest star
Don't give up, I'll find you in my own good time
I love you, you can't escape my mind

I know that I'll know when we go
And I'll go as far as I go
I'll be holding on for you
And I'll take you wherever I go
I know that I'll know when we go
And I'll go as far as I go
I'll be holding on for you
And I'll take you wherever I go
I know that I'll know when we go
And I'll go as far as I go
I'll be holding on for you
And I'll take you wherever I go

And I'll take you wherever I go

I know that I'll know when we go
And I'll go as far as I go
I'll be holding on for you
And I'll take you wherever I go

I know that I'll know when we go
And I'll go as far as I go
I'll be holding on for you
And I'll take you wherever I go
I know that I'll know when we go
And I'll go as far as I go
I'll be holding on for you
And I'll take you wherever I go
I know that I'll know when we go
And I'll go as far as I go
I'll be holding on for you
And I'll take you wherever I go

And I'll take you wherever I go

Wherever I go
