

Reel Big Fish, Say goodbye

i know you feel like a whore working for a dream that isn't even yours pleasing everybody but yourself wouldn't you rather be somewhere else with someone else there's no reason to stay together cuz it's all pain and no pleasure it would feel so good
to say good-bye
when i'm with you i wanna die
and all that time
was such a waste
i never wanna see your face
i just wanna get the fuck away
we are falling apart lost our soul and we lost our heart we can't be saved by being smart
we are falling apart
there's no reason to keep this up because it just hurts too much
to say good-bye
was such a waste
i just wanna get the fuck away maybe someday i will look back and see the best days of my life maybe someday i will miss you but for now the end feels right...
to say good-bye
was such a waste
i just wanna get the fuck away
i know you feel like a whore
working for a dream that isn't even yours...
