

Refugee, Someday

Someday you're gonna feel the pain
Someday you're gonna know my pain

Someday I'll go away
Just pack my bag
And I'll get on a plane
I'll fly up through my cloud
And I'll smash right through
Right into the sun

And I know that
Someday I'll turn my back
And I'll lock the house
And I'll give up the pain
And I'll go and take my peace
I'm gonna sail away
For a life and a day

And I know that
Someday you're gonna feel the pain
Someday you're gonna feel the pain

Someday you're gonna feel the pain
Someday you're gonna feel the pain
Someday

Someday I'll find a way
Get on my feet
And I'll walk out the door
And I'll leave you all the pain
That you gave to me
Wrapped up in a song

And I know that
Someday you'll know the day
You'll know the pain
It's right here in this song
And I'll leave it all to you
And then I'll smash right through
Right up to the sun

And you know, you know, you know that
Someday you're gonna feel the pain
Someday you're gonna feel my pain
Someday you're gonna feel the pain
Someday
