

Regard, Hallucination (feat. Years & Years)

You must be single, that must be why
You sent me some poem the other night
That shit's confusing, I have to say
Oh, you have got some nerve talking that way, yeah
Turn it up to let me know
You would still give us a go
I'm sorry but we've done this all before
It's just another show
Another story to be told
I'm foolish, I believed you, but now I know
Don't try to impress me, I know you're intending
To hurt me again
You look like a vision, but now I'm beginning
To see through the haze
Don't be so fake, oh
Your love is a hallucination
Don't be so fake, oh
Your love is a hallucination
Romeo, baby, he's not the king
Although nobody knows me quite like him
Now that I'm older, I expect to be wise
The truth is out there somewhere in between the lines, yeah
It's just another show
Another story to be told
I'm foolish, I believed you, but now I know
Don't try to impress me, I know you're intending
To hurt me again
You look like a vision, but now I'm beginning
To see through the haze
Don't be so fake, oh
Your love is a hallucination
Don't be so fake (oh, no), oh (oh, no)
Your love is a hallucination
Don't be so fake, you're not fooling anyone
(Your love is a hallucination)
Don't be so fake, you're not fooling anyone
(Your love is a hallucination)
Don't be so fake, oh
Your love is a hallucination
Don't be so fake, oh
Your love is a hallucination
