

Remi Wolf, Street You Live On

I avoid the street that you live on
You're a magnet pulling my feet
And my head off
And I scramble my brain
Wasting away
Looking for ways that I can avoid you
To pull the weeds,
Suck the venom

And you weren't lying
When you said you'd go quiet
I'm an empty drawer,
Not borrowing your socks anymore
Then why am I crying
We've done this fifteen times and
I'm a paper map rerouting different ways to the store

I avoid the street that you live on
You're a magnet pulling my feet
And my head off
And I scramble my brain
Wasting away
Looking for ways that I can avoid you
To pull the weeds,
Suck the venom

We're turning the corner
I think i am getting warmer
I am a feral cat
I am licking up the milt at your door
A serial farmer
I am harvesting the drama
This episode of „Criminal Minds” i stoo real to ignore

I avoid the street that you live on
You're a magnet pulling my feet
And my head off
And I scramble my brain
Wasting away
Looking for ways that I can avoid you
To pull the weeds,
Suck the venom

I avoid the street that you live on
You're a magnet pulling my feet
And my head off
And I scramble my brain
Wasting away
Looking for ways that I can avoid you
To pull the weeds,
Suck the venom
