

Remy Zero, I'm Not Afraid (Queen Of Creation)

tonight
we can no longer fight
we can never return to it once we began to see
through the eyes up over heaven would you ever return to me in the end

i'm not afraid of you at all if you turned away they will all fall

we can no longer try
all the time that i cried i want you again

no one's heard this
no voice resounds
no one's around
i can't believe it
what i have become
i'm no one
i'm real again

I'm not afraid tonight
all your stars burning bright i know i'll reach that light again again....
