

Renton, This is not the end

When it pulls you down
You better drop it
You better cut off the line
You better drop it
There is no way out
But to stop it
Cause even even its out of sight
It keeps on taking
Tow your head to the ground
Say a prayer for your enemies
Say you sorry
This one time be above
All your instincts stand in glory
Not in hurry, this one time
Do not hold it back
Its not worth it
The inner peace you owned
Is what you wanted
This is not the end
But the beginning
So leave it all behind
You better win it
