

Rhapsody Of Fire, Diamond Claws

Mighty wings to overfly the pain
Faithful friend we'll set the world on fire

Riding the sentry to face the unknown
The titan of crystal will tame every storm
It's hard to control such a behemoth of ice
Fear and terror are spread
With his bloodcurdling screams in the night

Holy sentry fly
Over the mystical rain and beyond

Bring me the truth that was unjustly veiled
I'm finally trusted to mount you and fly
None can stand before your diamond wings
You'll be feared and respected
My Terial, lord of the fight

Holy sentry fly
Over the mystical rain and beyond
Holy sentry fly high
There are no secrets for you in the sky

Across the time, to reach out the edge of the world
Beyond the light, to reach out the secrets untold
With the force of your diamond claws

Holy sentry fly
Over the mystical rain and beyond
Holy sentry fly high
There are no secrets for you in the sky

Across the time, to reach out the edge of the world
Beyond the light, to reach out the secrets untold
With the force of your diamond claws
