

Rhapsody Of Fire, Magic Signs

Once again I'm wide awake
While everything is quiet
Open eyes, laying on my thoughts

Heaven seems so far away
Oh, I tried to hide that inconvenient truth
Pretending that I'm blind
It's so hard to forgive yourself

Mystic rain please wash my tears away
Ancient spell, lights of dawn
Every scar reached the core
Every wound left a mark in my bones
Magic signs on my soul

Listen to the wailing wind
It's time to rise again
It'll be tough but time will prove you're right

Whispering, then a cry will rise
I'm getting mad, I throw it all away
My chance to be more wise
It's so hard to forgive yourself
Oh, I'm torn and I'll swallow my pride

Mystic rain please wash my tears away
Ancient spell, lights of dawn
Every scar reached the core
Every wound left a mark in my bones
Magic signs on my soul

Mystic rain please wash my tears away
Ancient spell, lights of dawn
Every scar reached the core
Every wound left a mark in my bones
Magic signs on my soul
