

Richard Marx, WHATEVER WE STARTED

Hang up the phone
I'm alone
I'm unlocked the door
Slipping alone
Your cloths just fallen
Of you to floor
Don't even make a sound
.. you mind around
There's only love
For me and you

Can't stop
Whatever we started
Can't resist
What's meant to be
Forget whatever we've promised
I want you all for me
It's only now
Don't think
Look into my eyes and don't blink
We can't stop
Whatever we started

...
