

Richie Kotzen, Broken Man Blues

Broken down, to fall down to know
Broken down, to fall down to know
Well I once was standing, now im to fall down to know

The lonely man, nothing left to show
I'm a lonely man, with nothing left to show
Well I once was standing, now I'm to fall down to know

I sold my soul, all my money is gone
I said I sold my soul, and all my money is gone
Well I once was standing, now I'm to fall down to know

On the ground, to fall down to know.
Yeahh eh
Oh! On the ground, to fall down to know
Well I once was standing, now I'm to fall down to know
Yeah!
