Rick Astley, I Don't Want To Lose Her

Stock/Aitken/Waterman

I don't wanna lose her I don't wanna lose her

They told me that she had found somebody new But I don't believe it They said I would soon find out she was untrue But I just can't see it

Maybe I am wrong to doubt it And now that I think about it If ever I lost her love I'd be nothing, nothing without it

I don't wanna lose her, lose that girl After all that we've been through I don't wanna lose her, lose that girl of mine (Lose that girl of mine)

I couldn't imagine life without her love I just couldn't take it If you wanted to know how well I would get on I don't think I'd make it

Maybe I just don't show her And now that I think it's over I maybe should shout about it 'Cos I'd be nothing, nothing without it

I don't wanna lose her, lose that girl After all that we've been through I don't wanna lose her, lose that girl of mine (Lose that girl of mine)

I'm gonna make a new start And bring her back to my heart 'Cos what I found out about her I just cannot live without her

Maybe I just don't show her And now that I think it's over I maybe should shout about it 'Cos I'd be nothing, nothing without it
