

Riddlin' Kids, Tell Me Truly

Will you please tell me
What we've been doin
Cause I don't know
And can you tell me
If we're together
I feel so alone

Cause you're so far away
And I come to you everyday
So tell me truly what we're doin
All I know is I can't deal with this anymore
And you and I might change the world somehow
It doesn't make a difference right now

I thought I knew you
It's been awhile
Since I looked in your eyes
How long can you go
Telling me you're great
Before I see through your lies

Cause you're so far away
And I follow you everyday
So tell me truly what we're doin
All I know is I can't deal with this anymore
And you and I might change the world somehow
It doesn't make a difference right now
Right now

Will you please tell me
What we've been doin
Cause I don't know
And can you tell me
If we're together
I feel so alone

Cause you're so far away
And I called you everyday
Cause you're so far away
Now there's nothing for me to say
Cause you're so far away
Can't take another day

So tell me truly what we're doin
All I know is I can't deal with this anymore
And you and I might change the world somehow
It doesn't make a difference right now
