

Ride, Vapour Trail

First you look so strong,
Then you fade away.
The sun will blind my eyes;
I love you anyway.
Thirsty for your smile;
I watch you for a while.
You are a vapour trail
In a deep blue sky.

Tremble with a sigh;
Glitter in your eye.
You seem to come and go;
I never seem to know.
And all my time
is yours as much as mine.
We never have enough
Time to show our love.
