

Rise Against, Nowhere Generation

We are the Nowhere Generation
We are the kids that no one wants
We are a credible threat
To the rules you set
A cause to be alarmed

We are not the names
That we've been given
We speak a language you don't know
We are the Nowhere Generation
The Nowhere Generation

One day
All the walls will come down
All the doors will open
All the roads will lead home
But right now
We are spiraling down
And the longer we wait
The further we go

Are we slipping through the cracks now
No place left on your map now to call home?

We are the Nowhere Generation
We are the kids that no one wants
We are a credible threat
To the rules you set
A cause to be alarmed

We are not the names
That we've been given
We speak a language you don't know
We are the Nowhere Generation
The Nowhere Generation
