

Rita Ora, Let You Love Me

i should've stayed with you last night instead of going out to find trouble that's just trouble I think I run away sometimes whenever oi get too vulnerable that's not your fault

see I wanna stay the whole night
I wanna lay with you till the sun's up i wanna let you inside
heaven knows I've tried

I wish that I could let you love
wish that I could let you love me
I wish that I could let you love me
wish that I could let you love me
Say what's the matter, what's the matter with me
what's the matter with me
I wish that I could I let you love
wish that I could let you love me
I wish /8x

and every time it gets too real AND Every time I feel like sabotaging I start running again and every time I push it away I really wanna say that I'm sorry but I say nothing

see I wanna stay the whole night
I wanna lay with you till the sun's up
i wanna let you inside
heaven knows I've tried

I wish that I could let you love
wish that I could let you love me
I wish that I could let you love me
wish that I could let you love me
Say what's the matter, what's the matter with me
what's the matter with me
I wish that I could I let you love
wish that I could let you love me
I wish /8x

I wanna stay with you till the morning
I wanna lay with you through the sunrise
I wannashow you that you're my only I wanna lay who you till the sun's up
I wanna lay with you through the sunrise
through the sunrise
Heaven knows I've tried

I wish that I could let you love
wish that I could let you love me
I wish that I could let you love me
wish that I could let you love me
Say what's the matter, what's the matter with me
what's the matter with me
I wish that I could I let you love
wish that I could let you love me
I wish /8x
