

Rj Helton, Crazy

One by one
They say these things will come undone
But these things that they say make it no less true
Lord I'm crazy in love with you
Oh

Yeah

Left behind
That's one thing that they'll never find
And when they ask why
I do all of these things that I do
Lord cause I'm crazy in love with you.
Oh oh

And they ask me why
They say why
And though my eyes can't hide that what they say is true
I feel no less the way I do

Guess I'm crazy in love with you.

In love with you you you

Ah hey

Take your time there's no need for you to decide
When they ask how long I tell them until forever is through
Lord I'm crazy in love with you
Ohh

And they ask me why
They say why
And I can't deny sometimes I feel just like a fool
But then they make it no less true
That I'm crazy in love with you

So don't ask me why
Don't say why
Don't say why
I feel no less the way that I

I do
Until forever is through
I'll be crazy in love with you

You
Crazy
In love with you
You you you
I'm crazy in love with you
Ohh
Crazy in love with you
