

Rob Rock, Never Too Late

By your broken words, I feel your tables turn
Don't try to feed me with your lies
By the way you talk, I'd say you need a friend
It's time to throw off your disguise

It's never too late to start again
You'll find the answers in your heart
It's never too late to turn away
From all those things that do you wrong

You need to be yourself, see who you really are
So decide what you want to do
Only you can tell what you need to be free
Don't want to go on playing the fool

It's never too late to start again
You'll find the answers in your heart
It's never too late to turn away
From all those things that do you wrong

You think you got it made, you better take a look
Because you can't hide what's in your eyes

It's never too late to start again
You'll find the answers in your heart
It's never too late to turn away
From all those things that do you wrong

It's never too late to start again
You'll find the answers in your heart
It's never too late to turn away
From all those things that do you wrong
