Robbie Williams, Do You Mind?

This is a song full of metaphors All I've been eating is tobacco and chaw They let me into your country though Then I can show you what you're missing me for

I'm a night kind of animal You're a reciever, what you testing me for? I was scared, so I ate 'em all They tasted good but they made me look old

And oooh, you teach like a toothache I'm not here for my sake How long will this Mickey take? And oooh, there's heavy entertainment Out here on the pavement They're mad about you Gotta get away

Do-oooh, oooh, oooh, oooh you mind If I, I, I, I, I, I, I, I touch you Do-oooh, oooh, oooh, oooh you mind If I, I, I, I, I, I, I, I touch you

I'll fake you're famous if that's what you want But to complete your own pulpit you must fill your own font Bring some wine and some Sensodyne Then you could be my favorite, no, no

Anyone fancy Monaco? I'm a placebo, they're chasing me, fool Don't be scared, you could eat em all They taste good but they make you look old

And oooh, you simply cut cake You could be a keepsake Your jukebox will generate And oooh, I'm heavy entertainment In need of containment I'm mad about you Gotta get away

Do-oooh, oooh, oooh, oooh you mind If I, I, I, I, I, I, I, I touch you Do-oooh, oooh, oooh, oooh you mind If I, I, I, I, I, I, I, I touch you

And oooh, you teach like a toothache I'm not here for my sake How long will this Mickey take? And oooh, there's heavy entertainment Out here on the pavement They're mad about you Gotta get away
