Robert Cray, Stay Go

You never stay You're on the go Three times a day Or maybe more

Where you run to I just don't know I turn around You've got the Ford

Didn't put any gas in it When you brought it back

You're out last night The night before And the night before that

Oh, you're starting to worry me Can I have the car keys back?

In, out In, out In and out, just like a cat

Never, ever stay at home, babe If you're here it's just to change clothes

This in and out is driving me crazy Are you gonna stay or are you gonna go?

(Guitar solo)

I'd love to have a date with you Being my wife and everything

Tomorrow morning When you get home You're gonna find There's something wrong

I sold the car And hid the phone So you and I can be home alone

Now maybe we can take a walk together or something That'd be real nice

Stay, go Stay, go

Stay, go

Stay, go

Stay, go

Stay, go

In, out Stay, go