

Robert M, follow you

I will follow you
follow you
I will follow you
I will follow you
follow you
I will follow you

in the ..
fallen through your hands
you know the everything be aright

when .. your command
you gotta step into the light

I will follow you through the dark

let go
what you cannot hold don't hide your heavy eyes you make fire when it's cool cause you're the love

I will follow you
follow you
