

Robert Palmer, Remember To Remember

(Robert Palmer)

No haste, no pause, no rest

Girl remember to remember

Love wont take second best

Remember to remember

Heartache and pain wont last like your old habits do

Catch up with your past

Before it catches up with you

Your dreams are not what they were

Your heart danced to a different tune

I wont forget my word

I'll remember to remember too

Your pride will overlook your lesson when you fall

Leave no stone unturned, don't let it slip beyond recall

Love starts to last when you do the things that you neglected to

Forever haunting your past will blind you to the love you do

No haste, no pause, no rest

Girl remember to remember

Love wont take second best

Remember to remember

Heartache and pain wont last like your old habits do

Catch up with your past

Before it catches up with you

Your dreams are not what they were

Your heart danced to a different tune

I wont forget my word
