

Robi Rosa, My Eyes Adore You

my eyes adore you
so many of them always say tomorrows is before you all of us musnt play the game so many days, so many nights of love, sweet love hold on dont wake up hold on to your life tomorrows alive, tonight i know, i know how you feel most of us spend our lives wating for someone like you is a new day i know how you feel
does it matter what you say somedays will fall
somedasys will run away
i know when we come
someone will pay the way some win your heart
and give you freedom from lousy day
and why your so cold
is it funny when i fall
your beatiful sinful
but tomorros are day and you will,will break my fall.
my eyes adore
as the river flows confused in dimed ill be burning in your water again and for ever watching the way it seems
some win your arm
but tomorrow your ways will break my fall oh why, why your so cold (beatiful)
