

Robin Schulz, Break For You

If you have the key to us
Would you let it go and lock it up?
And if you have my heart and lungs
Would you pray for me and for my blood?

'Cause you holding me is heaven-like, like
While life for me is terrified
I'm a prisoner in paradise-dise
[?] high

You take one look at me and now you made my heart rush
Left in ten thousand pieces of the person I was
You wrapped in all problem feelings, now I'm [?] undefeated
I beat and break for you

I beat and break, I beat and break for you
I beat and break, I beat and break for you
I beat and break, I beat and break for you
I beat and break, I beat and break for you
I beat and break, I beat and break for you
I beat and break, I beat and break for you
I beat and break, I beat and break for you
I beat and break, I beat and break for you

If we kissed in the pouring rain
Would you shelter me and keep me safe?
And if I hurt you and did you wrong
Would you take me back with open arms?

'Cause you holding me is heaven-like, like
While life for me is terrified
I'm a prisoner in paradise-dise
[?] high

You take one look at me and now you made my heart rush
Left in ten thousand pieces of the person I was
You wrapped in all problem feelings, now I'm [?] undefeated
I beat and break for you

I used to be steady and strong, now look what you've done
You kicked my feet from under me with your love
You wrapped in all problem feelings, now I'm [?] undefeated
I beat and break for you

I beat and break, I beat and break for you
I beat and break, I beat and break for you
I beat and break, I beat and break for you
I beat and break, I beat and break for you
