Robin Thicke, Side Step

Ohhhh Baby

Come on baby, Come on now

Sidestep

Hey, Don't you sidestep my love

They say it ain't about your car and your house

Or the money you make and how it all goes down

I think that it's about keepin ones you love near

That's why I'm on the hop thinking you should be here

Maybe I should hurry up get by your side

Follow you around just be on your time

Or maybe I should just leave you behind

Maybe I'm keeping you from a chance at a better life

Then I call you and I come out and tell you straight up

Baby I, I need your love

And you go sidestep, Pull me around

Put out your hand, Put me on down and I

Wanna know why, why you don't need my love Then you go sidestep, Swing me around

Put out your hand, Put me on down and I

Wanna know why, why you ain't in no hurry for my love

Oh

Hmmm

You ain't in no hurry

Baby

That makes me worry

On the telephone telling me tired of being alone

But we staying up allnight

Talking about I ain't doing right

Baby come on

Oh and when I open up and straight up tell you

Baby

A man needs love too

Then you go sidestep

Spin me around, Put out your hand

Put me on down and I, Wonder why you ain't

Ain't in no hurry for my love

Come on now

Oh

Hey baby

Sidestep

Hey

Come on Now

Hey Sidestep Hey

Don't you sidestep my love

Come on baby uh

I drop everything and cancel my plans, uh

And I come to you hat in my hand

Hoping we can find a new way to understand babe

And maybe we can be a better woman and man

Come on now

Oh I need you cause you're my best friend

But I can't believe it, here we go again

When you go sidestep

Pull me around, Put out your hand

Put me on down and I, Wanna know why

Why you don't need my love

Then you go sidestep

Swing me around, Put out your hand

Put me on down and I, Wanna know why

Why you don't need my love
