

Robin Thicke, Want To Love You Girl

She's the kind of girl you wanna marry the kind of girl you walk the whole world for put her on your back and just carry her attitude is hotter than the earth's core when she's around nothing else matters untouchable she got her own forcefield sooner or later someone will get at her if I don't someone else will

(Chorus X4)

Want to love you girl
Want to love you girl
Want to love you girl
Want to love you

oh (x16)

She's the kind of girl you wanna marry scientists say that she's the second sunshine and now my life is sweeter than berries (blue berries)
I guess if we have sex our love will turn to wine

When she's around nothing else matters even if the sky was at a stand still if I turn my back then someone will get at her
if I don't someone else will

(Chorus X4)

Want to love you girl
Want to love you girl
Want to love you girl
Want to love you

oh (x16)

(Chorus 2 X4)

Want to love you girl
Want to love you
(I'm so glad I found you, oh girl)
Want to love you girl
Want to love you

(Pharrell:)

uh, picture this all picture my life and my intention to ball picture this ice and how it glitter for ya'll now don't you feel claustrophobic when the chick is involved she changed your life and your frame of mind sorry I hope what i'm saying is fine we fuss but we take it one day at a time if there's a fire you know that she'll lay in the line I just close my eyes and curve my mouth open my mind and words come out you're eclectic, you're creative you the picture girl I just painted I got it you name it, it's all paid for Big Castle on the safe shore with the Willy Wonka decor how that sound Mr. and Mrs. Skateboard 'P'

(Chorus 2 X8)

Want to love you girl

Want to love you
(I'm so glad I found you, oh girl)
Want to love you girl
Want to love you
