Robin Thicke, Want To Love You Girl

She's the kind of girl you wanna marry the kind of girl you walk the whole world for put her on your back and just carry her attitude is hotter than the earths core

when she's around nothing else matters untouchable she got her own forcefield sooner or later someone will get at her if I don't someone else will

(Chorus X4)
Want to love you girl
Want to love you girl
Want to love you girl
Want to love you
