

Roc Project, Deja Vu

It's just deja vu....
i don't wanna believe in your..
too hard to believe in your....
i don't wanna believe in your love...
it's just deja vu....

(Verse 1:)

Maybe your memory can be all in me its good enough for you but it's not for me is this a case of "deja vu"?
cause it's probably too good to be true after all the things you put me through i would not fall back on you

(Pre-Chorus:)

It's hard to believe that someone could turn into somebody new It's hard to believe that someone could change into somebody new (That somebody's you)

(Chorus:)

I don't wanna believe in your
too hard to believe in your
i don't wanna believe in your love
i don't wanna believe in your
too hard to believe in your
i don't wanna believe in your love
It's just Deja Vu

(Verse 2:)

well you keep telling me it will be so sweet i keep hearing promises with no guarantees
well is this a case of "deja vu"?
and it's probably too good to be true
i remember the things you put me through
i don't wanna fall back on you...

(Pre-Chorus)

(Chorus)

well is this a case of "deja vu"?
and it's probably too good to be true
i remember the things you put me through
i don't wanna fall back on you...

(Chorus til end)
