

Rod Stewart, For The First Time

(Jud Friedman, Allen Rich, James Newton-Howard)

Are those your eyes
Is that your smile
I've been looking at you forever yet I never saw you before Are these your hands holding mine
Now I wonder how I could have been so blind
And for the first time I am looking in your eyes
For the first time I'm seeing who you are I can't believe how much I see when you're looking back at me now I understand what love is, love is for the first time

Can this be real Can this be true Am I the person I was this morning and are you the same you It's all so strange How can it be
All along this love was right in front of me
And for the first time I am looking in your eyes
For the first time I'm seeing who you are
I can't believe how much I see
when you're looking back at me
now I understand what love is, love is
for the first time

Such a long time ago I had given up on finding this emotion ever again But you're here with me now Yes I found you somehow and I've never been so sure
And for the first time I am looking in your eyes
For the first time I'm seeing who you are Can't believe how much I see
when you're looking back at me
Now I understand what love is, love is
for the first time
For the first time
