

Rod Stewart, Motown Song

Bring over some of your old Motown records We'll put the speakers in the window and we'll go on the roof and listen to the Miracles
echo to the alley down below
Let's dance together just for the night Let's don't worry about the future or nothin' else
'Cause just like the music's sayin' you gotta take chances Go ahead just do it and trust yourself Theres a soul in the city
watching over us tonight
There's a soul in the city
saying everything's gonna be all right So bring over some of your old Motown records We'll put the speakers in the window and we'll go
on the roof and listen to the Miracles
echo to the alley down below
They wish us luck
but they think we're just dreaming

Let's prove them wrong baby 'Cause you know what luck is luck is believing you're lucky that's all and showing just a little bit of faith
There's a soul in the city
watching over us I swear There's a soul in the city
there's a whole world waiting out there Listen
I got plans for us playing like a skip on a record through my head all night long But when we walk that darkened stairway and step out on the roof I know what we're feeling can't be wrong
Bring over some of your old Motown records
We'll put the speakers in the window and we'll go
on the roof and listen to the Miracles
echo to the alley down below
Bring over some of your old Motown records
We'll put the speakers in the window and we'll go
on the roof and listen to the Miracles
echo to the alley down below
"Let the Temptations sing it one time" Bring over some of you old Motown records We'll put the speakers in the window and we'll go
on the roof and listen to the Miracles
echo to the alley down below
