Rodriguez, CAUSE

ause I lost my job two weeks before Christmas And I talked to Jesus at the sewer And the Pope said it was none of his God-damned business

While the rain drank champagne My Estonian Archangel came and got me wasted Cause the sweetest kiss I ever got is the one I've never tasted

Oh but they'll take their bonus pay to Molly McDonald, Neon lady , beauty is that which obeys, is bought or borrowed

Cause my heart's become a crooked hotel full of rumours But it's I who pays the rent for these fingered-face out-of-tuners

And I make 16 solid half hour friendships every evening Cause your queen of hearts who is half a stone And likes to laugh alone is always threatening you with leaving

Oh but they play those token games on Willy Thompson And give a medal to replace the son of Mrs. Annie Johnson

Cause they told me everybody's got to pay their dues And I explained that I had overpaid them So overdued I went to the company store and the clerk there said that they had just been invaded

So I set sail in a teardrop and escaped beneath the doorsill Cause the smell of her perfume echoes in my head still

Cause I see my people trying to drown the sun In weekends of whiskey sours Cause how many times can you wake up in this comic book and plant flowers?
