

Roisin Murphy, Ten Miles High

Let's ride 10 miles up
Just inside the Stratosphere
More sky, more blue jets
Stream by
You're gonna love it here

Let's fly 10 miles up
Just outside the Atmosphere
We'll climb straight up
Set aside your rational fear

Goodbye, little cruel World
Never again will I ever be grounded on Earth
Or be bound by the hurt in you
Blue eyes offer a Brave New World
Out in the starry skies of Paradise found

As we rise do far above
Our little lights, in miniature
And even your eyes can be transfixed
Knock, knock, knock down
Ypour heavenly door

One mile in
It keeps pulling me back
Have you got to ever leave?
Higher now, there's no turning back
Gone in the blink of an eye

Goodbye, little cruel World
Never again will I ever be grounded on Earth
Or be bound by the hurt in you
Blue eyes offer a Brave New World
Out in the starry skies of Paradise found
