

Ronski Speed, All the way

Love's a flame that's burned you down
Turned your heart around forever
You take it in and pull it out
Still too strong to just surrender
And fall away
Away
All the way...
So be bold
Let the walls come down and light surround your face
The clouds are far behind
Let it go
Cuz im open wide and here for you to take
I wont back out
Im in this all the way
I cant slow down
Im in this all the way...
Open wide
Take it all in Reawaken
And come alive
Be mine
