

Rosalie., This Thing Called Love

I took one breath
One touch
One kiss on your neck
Your fingers crossing my lips
No, I can't resist

That night
You drowned in my mind
Exploring every inch
Of the sweetest thing called love

Coz you,you gave me something new
And you
You make me so confused
But I
Boy, I can't deny
No,I can't deny
Coz you,you gave me something new
And you
You make me so confused
But I
Boy, I can't deny
No, I can't deny

This Thing Called Love

Think about all these nights you saw me
We could talk, ouer hands they maid there own speach
Trying to find something new in us two
Just loose yourself
Coz you won't forget
What I am about to give
What I am about to share
Just with you baby
I know, you made it very clear
It's a nothing but a thrill
But now it's just sweet love

Coz you,you gave me something new
And you
You make me so confused
But I
Boy, I can't deny
No,I can't deny
Coz you,you gave me something new
And you
You make me so confused
But I
Boy, I can't deny
No, I can't deny
This thing called love
