

Roxette, I'm Under Your Magic Spell

Like a light coming down, from the sky
Thundering Venus and Apollo
And my invitation of the physical kind
Out of control, I just tend to follow

You're close to me, like the air that I breathe
I touch too much, I never wanna leave

Seems I'm under a magic spell (Magic love)
Any way I try, I just can't hide
I'm under your magic spell (Under a magic...)
And nothing enough I'm on the hunt for your love

Holding the fire out of the road
Straight from the heart to the end of the rainbow
Turning electric, and going for gold
Body and soul, just has to follow

You're close to me, like the air that I breathe
I touch too much, I never wanna leave

Seems I'm under a magic spell ...

Baby for your love
