

Roxette, It Takes You No Time To Get Here

Why don't you take the rest of the day off
You do deserve a break
Follow that road, it ain't long
Just cross that silver lake
Yea, pass the pond, the off-white fence
When you see the mailbox to the left you've made it all right,
No way to go wrong
All you do is blow that horn

It takes you no time to get here
Just drive out of town today
It takes you no time to get here and when You've arrived you might as well stay
You might as well stay

Why don't you leave your desk for a short while
You do deserve some time
Enjoying the other side of life you forgot to memorize
Stay in the sun, reach for the moon
Make a little love in the afternoon
You're doing all right, no way you go wrong
This is the place where you belong

It takes you no time
No time to get here
