

Roxette, Some Other Summer

You locked the door
Don't know why
You had to keep
It all inside

Just had to smell
That sweet perfume
And watch the stars
The soul, the room

Some other summer
Some other summer
You will do better
Oh the crash will make you strong
Some other sunshine
Some other shoreline
You will do better
Oh the burning

You cut your heart
You did it fast
No one wants
The pain to last

And all the beauty
Gathered round
Your tainted dream
Went underground

Some other summer
Some other summer
You will do better
Oh the crash will make you strong
Some other sunshine
Some other shoreline
You will do better
Oh the burning makes you strong

Some other summer
Some other summer
You will do better
Better better better
Some other Friday
Some other Saturday
You will do better
Oh the burning makes you strong
