Boy, you wish you're my type ain't afraid of no goodbye, no! would I have took you for a ride put your feelings in the ice I don't care about the price but you said you'd never let me go if I wanna it boy, I'll let you know body language paralyzed can't you see it in my eyes don't you know they never lie you only at a place in my

I am only gonna fall for another just want you to know

MVP

I got you feeling more than just alright though I been out here running game why you've been going syco I am still on my high though

I am out playing in the field I don't need something real but I always keep it real for myself foer myself you already know the deal so call me crazy
call me heartless
I ain't got to be somebody else somebody else
I know plenty of guys who do this I am not tryna be somebody else
somebody else

you only at a place in my
just want you to know
